Columbia, SC 29201

Dear Tony:

Your letter of March 25, 1982, asking whether or not a local ?? 'local public procurement unit' and whether or not these ?? are defined as 'local public procurement units', are authors ?? property through the State's Surplus Property Program has be ?? for review.

Section 11-35-4610(3) defines a 'local public procurement ?? subdivision or unit of any political subdivision that ?? for the procurement of supplies, services, or construction. ?? rescue squad in issue is expending public funds, then it ?? parameters of the definition of 'local public procurement ?? 11-35-4830 allows any public procurement unit to acquire ?? public procurement unit independent of Article 5, which dealt ?? and contract formation, and Article 15, which deals with ?? Therefore, as the Consolidated Procurement Code is written, ?? to allowing the local rescue squad in issue, so long as it is ?? funds, to participate in the Division of General Services' ?? Program.

I hope that this clarification will be of assistance to you. ?? to call me if I may be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Judith Evans Finuf
Assistant Attorney General
